Steps to join the freshers' orientation program from 01/09/2021 to 06/09/2021 and classes thereafter:

Step 1: Check your primary e-mail (the e-mail id you have provided to the institute at the time of admission/registration) on regular basis.

Step 2: You will get a mail having the credentials i.e. login id and password to login to the institutional G suite. Now onwards called as temporary Institutional G Suite id.

Step 3: For the first time, login through the credentials (received in Step 2) to Gmail.com.

Step 4: Change the password and remember it or write the new password securely so that you can use it afterword. [If you forget password then it will be difficult for us to retrieve it on time and you may lose many orientation sessions and lectures. So be responsible in saving your password. All the communication from the institute will be done to your temporary Institutional G Suite id only, so you are advised to act promptly to activate nd use temporary Institutional G Suite id and access your mail box on regular basis.

Step 5: You will get a link to attend the orientation program which is scheduled from 01/09/2021 to 06/09/2021 for undergraduate and post graduate students.

Step 6: Join the induction/ orientation program by clicking on the links provided in the orientation schedule for different session on each day. Remember, when prompted to join, use the temporary institutional Gsuite id and password only, Using other gmail ids you will not be able to join and watch the streaming.

A document on Student's Quick Guide to Google classroom is also attached with the mail for giving you acquaintance with Google Classroom which will be used by all the faculty members to manage their virtual classroom.Use the temporary institutional G Suite id for log in always till a new permanent Id is given to you.
